

Cuddington Facebook Page Code of Conduct

The Cuddington Facebook page is intended to/for:

- Sharing information regarding news and events in Cuddington and neighbouring villages
- Connecting Cuddington residents, past, present and future
- Provide a forum for the sharing of ideas
- Complement and support the Cuddington website and Village Voice
- Lost and found notices etc.
- Fundraising
- For villagers to seek recommendations

What it is not intended for:

- Commercial advertising
- Buying and selling. Please use other sites/groups for this purpose
- Political campaigning

Who can join?

- Anyone with an interest in Cuddington!

What will not be tolerated:

- Profane, discriminatory, obscene and sexually explicit language or content
- Comments that harass, threaten, abuse or criticise others in a personal manner, or seek to incite such behaviour in others
- Personal attacks on any Facebook contributor or moderator
- Political messages/campaigning
- Malicious or derogatory comments which seek to personally degrade others

As the pages are not moderated regularly, please report any inappropriate material to the moderators immediately.

Neither the moderators nor the Parish Council are responsible for the content of any external links.

The views and opinions expressed by all contributors to the page are not necessarily endorsed by the moderators or the Parish Council.

The moderators reserve the right to remove content that does not comply with our standards.

19th July 2018

